6. In September, 1998, my employment as Vice President of Finance and Chief Financial Officer at Intelledge formally ended with Intelledge's filing of Chapter 7 Bankruptcy. However, for the next three months (and approximately until the end of December, 1998), I would visit the offices of Intelledge, approximately once each week, to review mail, address general administrative issues, and assist in various matters relating to the liquidation of the assets of Intelledge pursuant to the bankruptcy proceedings.

7. During this time period (from September to December, 1998), I did not receive any correspondence from the law firm of Laff, Whitesel, Conte & Saret, Ltd. regarding the status of the above-referenced patent application.

8. Beginning in early January 1999, I began employment with another organization and ceased my work on behalf of Intelledge. However, Mr. John Noel, an in-house attorney for Intelledge, would contact me occasionally if there were any issues that needed my attention. I was never contacted regarding any correspondence from the law firm of Laff, Whitesel, Conte & Saret, Ltd. regarding the status of the above-referenced patent application.

9. From September, 1998 through January, 1999, I was unaware that the above-referenced patent application was in jeopardy of becoming abandoned. Moreover, I did not receive any correspondence from the law firm of Laff, Whitesel, Conte & Saret, Ltd. notifying me that the above-referenced patent application was in jeopardy of becoming abandoned.

10. As Vice President of Finance and Chief Financial Officer, and the individual having administrative responsibility for patent matters for Intelledge, I did not intend for the above-referenced patent application to go abandoned.

Re: Intelledge Corporation
U.S. Application Serial No. 08/983,394
Your Ref. Nos.: 205071-0001 and 205071-00028

Dear Mr. Laff:

In August of 2002, we filed a petition to revive the above-referenced patent application. In the very near future, we will be supplementing the petition with, among other things, a declaration from a former Intelledge Corporate Officer reciting that Intelledge did not intend to abandon the above-referenced application, and that they were unaware of (and failed to receive any communications regarding) a Notification of a Defective Oath or Declaration dated January 5, 1999 that had been mailed from the U.S. Patent Office to Laff, Whitesel, Conte & Saret, Ltd. It was the failure to respond to this document that caused the application to go abandoned.

In a letter dated June 19, 2002, you confirmed that your file indicated that a power of attorney was granted in Serial No. 08/983,394 to Laff, Whitesel, Conte & Saret, Ltd., and to the registered patent attorneys then in the firm. This power of attorney listed you as the attorney to whom correspondence should be addressed.

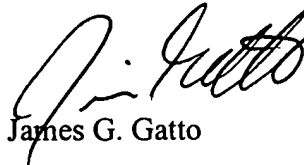

During a telephone conference on June 18, 2002, you indicated that your file for Serial No. 08/983,394 contains neither: (1) a Notification of a Defective Oath or Declaration from the U.S. Patent Office, nor (2) any correspondence to Intelledge regarding such a Notification. Please confirm that our understanding of these two points is correct, or, if you have any such correspondence, please send it to us by January 21, 2003. If we fail to receive any documents from you, we will assume our understanding is correct.
